PSPO – The Polish Association of Oil Producers

Headquarters : ul.Grzybowska 2 lok. 49, 00-131 Warszawa, Polska

SUBJECT OF THE CONTRACT:

The announcers are launching a call for proposals on the implementation of a promotion campaign on the merits of European rapeseed and sunflower seed oils on the French and Polish markets.

LENGTH OF THE MISSION:

Three years (01/02/2020 – 31/01/2023).

OUTLINE OF THE PROJECT:

Terres Univia is the inter-branch organisation of vegetal oils and proteins in France, created in 2015 from the fusion of UNIP and ONIDOL. Terres Univia is recognised as an inter-branch body by the decree of 20 February 2015. The organisation brings together the main trade associations and federations concerned by the production, trade, transformation, and use of oilseed (rapeseed, sunflower, soy, flax, olive) and protein-rich plants (peas, field beans, lupin, alfalfa, beans).

PSPO is a sector organisation representing oilseed processing industry in Poland that brings together all the leading fat industry players. The Mission of the Polish Association of Oil Producers is by acting to establish conditions for competitive development of the Polish oilseed industry. Established in 2007. More info: www.pspo.com.pl

Terres Univia and PSPO, with the support of an implementing body (advertisement / communication agency) – whose selection is the topic of this call for proposals – will implement over a period of 3 years (01/02/2020 – 31/01/2023) an agricultural promotion programme submitted to the European Union in April 2019 and with expected results in October 2019.

The promotion programme will be implemented in the French and Polish markets.

It will be a B2C programme. The message on the “oils” product will be targeted towards consumers and opinion-leaders.

The promotion programme aims at:

- Improving the knowledge level and the awareness of consumers on nutritional values of vegetable oils, as well as the image of the product, rapeseed oil and sunflower oil
- Increasing oils sales in the targeted countries and therefore increasing the market shares of EU companies

Most actions delegated to the selected implementing body will focus on the following inter-linked aspects:

- Graphic design services (advertising material...)
- Communication services (internet, social media, radio, video...)
- Press relations (press conferences, press kits, press releases)

Infos markets France and Poland.

France :

Background :

- A declining market in terms of volume over the past 30 years
- Fewer and fewer buyers, who buy less and less quantity

The main targets of the programme are:

- Consumers in general, with a specific focus on couples and families between 30 and 49 years old with children younger than 12,
- Opinion-leaders, especially journalists and health professionals.

Secondary targets are:

- Professionals of agriculture and food: producers, retailers,
- Public and private decision-makers.

Obstacles to consumption are:

- Demonization of fat,
- Lack of interest for homemade cooking, and in parallel the huge success of ready-made meals,
- An increase in meals taken outside of the home,
- The lack of distinctive taste of seed oils as compared to olive oil for instance.

Poland:

Background: Limited knowledge about nutritional values of rapeseed oil in TG. This is why we want to execute activities that will strengthen awareness of nutritional values of rapeseed oil and will result in a 10% increase in its positive perception among customers and opinion leaders. Awareness of nutritional values of rapeseed oil will be measured based on such attributes as: natural source of omega 3 fatty acids, source of unsaturated fatty acids, rich in vitamin E, good for balanced diet of children

Target groups :

1. Primary target group (TG 1) : consumers - women responsible for household purchases:
 - a. aged 30 – 49 with children,
 - b. secondary education +
 - c. caring for their families to provide them with quality products and healthy diet
2. Secondary target group (TG 2): opinion leaders in Poland
 - nutritionists and experts in dietetics

The main messages are:

1. Primary target group (TG1)
 - role of rapeseed oil and essential unsaturated fatty acids in the diet of children and adults
 - functional, nutritional and health benefits of rapeseed oil consumption
 - balanced diet and healthy lifestyle
 - forming correct eating behaviors
 - essential nutrients for children's growth and development
2. Secondary target group-opinion leaders:
 - the role of fat, rapeseed oil and essential unsaturated fatty acids in the diet of children and adults
 - the perfect 2:1 omega-6 to omega-3 ratio in rapeseed oil
 - rapeseed oil as a source of omega-3 fatty acids which are scarce in our diet
 - functional, nutritional and health benefits of rapeseed oil consumption: prevention of coronary diseases, help in keeping blood cholesterol level low, stable medium for home frying, cold usage applications (dressings, sauces).
 - production methods of rapeseed oil and the quality of the final product
 - essential nutrients for children's growth and development

We have to remain careful:

- Not to demonize other sources of fat such as butter.
- Not to be too commercial. We are not advertising brands but generic products.

- Not to push towards over-consumption, given that we are concerned by the public health message “do not eat too much fat, sugar, or salt”.

Each proposed action will have to be presented in a detailed way for each year of the programme. The implementing body will have to deliver output and results indicators for each action. In addition, all deliverables will have to be communicated/delivered to Terres Univia and PSPO in an editable and copyright-free way, with all source files.

The logo “Enjoy, it’s from Europe”, and the logos of Terres Univia and of PSPO will have to be integrated on all created deliverables, as well as the mention “CAMPAIGN FINANCED WITH AID FROM THE EUROPEAN UNION”. In smaller letters, the following disclaimer should also be integrated to the visuals: “*The content of this [poster/leaflet/website/...] represents the views of the author only and his/her sole responsibility.
